

The Bordeauxthèque, only the best wines

With 250m² entirely devoted to Bordeaux wines, this outstanding wine cellar offers an array of over 1,000 different wines purchased direct from the châteaux. The collection ranges from affordable lesser known vintages to the most legendary vintages of all time.

Its aim is to bring the best of Bordeaux's vineyards direct to wine lovers, budding wine buffs and connoisseurs alike.

To date, the Bordeauxthèque is the largest cellar of Bordeaux wines in the world.

The Bordeauxthèque has a real treat in store for fans of Bordeaux wines with over 1,200 different wines: reds, dry white wines, sweet white wines and rosés, grand crus (Petrus, Yquem), recommended wines from just €4.90, the latest vintages and wines from legendary years starting from 1919, half-bottles and larger sizes up to imperial (6 litres). Plus, don't forget that each month there are special offers showcasing the work of passionate wine producers.

The Bordeauxthèque is located in Lafayette Gourmet, 1st floor of Lafayette Homme
