A rich heritage

Former family home of the Countess Adèle de Toulouse-Lautrec and her famous son, the painter Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec, Château Malromé is today both a 43-hectare vineyard that has been in operation for five centuries, and a special place to live, full of history and rich in biodiversity. Located in South Gironde, 40 minutes away from Bordeaux and 10 minutes from Langon in Entre-Deux-Mers, the Château offers a soft and warm atmosphere in the heart of unspoiled nature. An ideal place for coming and chilling out for a day or a weekend.

A perfect harmony between tradition & modernity

The Huynh family, current owner, bought the Château in 2013 and carried out large-scale works until it reopened to the public in 2017. Since then, guided visits of the apartments of the painter Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec and of the room where about thirty of his original works can be seen are open to visitors. Today, other modern areas complete the offer.
