CHÂTEAU Louise DE LA VALLIÈRE

Christmas and New Year's Eve at the Chateau Louise de La Vallière

Would you like to spend Christmas and New Year's Eve at a Chateau hotel in the heart of the French valley of kings, just like the kings, queens, and royal favourites of the bygone era?

The Chateau Louise de La Vallière invites you to celebrate Christmas and New Year's Eve with luxury, elegance, and wonder. You can relish the gastronomic pleasures of trying gourmet dishes in the cosy and friendly atmosphere at the Amphitryon restaurant.

The Chateau, a house of the young Louise de La Vallière, has an intimate atmosphere and is lit by sparkling candlelight. Here you will taste the great classics of a royal feast of the past reinterpreted by Chef Maxime Lesobre. After dinner, you will stay at one of our Boudoirs or Suites, where time seems to have stopped in the 17th century. And to complete your experience, a festive brunch will be served on the morning of December 26 and January 1, 2023.

About:

The new jewel of the Relais & Châteaux collection, Le Château Louise de La Vallière, is a 5-star hotel service and gastronomic restaurant nestled in a forest in the heart of Touraine, one of France's most beautiful provinces and close to Amboise's royal city. This castle of the sixteenth century welcomed the first resorts, the young Louise, future Duchess of La Vallière and the great love of the Sun King. A few centuries later, thanks to the passion of its owner Mira Grebenstein, this marvel of the Renaissance finds its superb, its splendour and its letters of nobility. This exceptional place will offer the experience of immersion in the history of France, enhanced by the interior designed by Jacques Garcia. Twenty rooms and suites, a gourmet restaurant, and a treatment centre will be as many cases to live an exceptional stay.
