

Hotel Napoleon : a new 5 star in Paris

Behind the history of the hotel, hides a love story....

The love story between a rich Russian businessman, Alexander Pavlovich Kliaguine, and a young french student who first met at a "literature salon" in 1928. It was love at first sight. In order to introduce her to Parisian "high society" at the time, he bought a hotel in the prestigious 8th arrondissement and gave it to her as a wedding present. Still today the hotel belongs to the Kliaguine family.

Today, following a large renovation program, the hotel is proud to announce its 5th star.

With its unique location, just a short walk away from the Champs-Élysées and the Arc de Triomphe, the Hotel Napoleon is one of the most legendary hotels of the city: a fine address to discover and rediscover. Our 52 rooms and 50 Suites are all designed in the Empire style with newly refurbished and modernized colors. A Parisian atmosphere still remains in the Hotel.

The Napoleon includes also a Bar- Restaurant: the Bivouac Café, 8 meeting spaces and a fitness room.
